ABOUT US

The conference of European Road Directors CEDR is a network of Road Directors

The road directors of Europe are aware of the importance of improving European cooperation. This is a key element for making progress in the road and road transport sector and strengthening the relationship with other modes of transport and with society at large.

The purpose of co-operation at European level is to facilitate the exchange of experience and information and to analyse and discuss all road-related issues, especially infrastructure, infrastructure management, traffic and transport, financing, legal and economic problems, safety, environment, and research in all of these areas.
