

Budapest, Hungary

Eötvös Lóránd University

Anita Antal, innovation manager

CONTACT

antal.anita@innovacio.elte.hu

WEBSITE

www.elte.hu

ABOUT US

Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE) was founded in 1635 and is the longest continuously serving and most prestigious university in Hungary with the richest traditions and the highest international rankings in the country.

The Center for Innovation of ELTE manages the University's tasks for organization of research. It supports the preparing of the development of research strategies. It attends ELTE's tasks relating to innovation, cooperation with businesses and technology transfer is responsible for facilitating the exploitation of the research results produced by the University by acting as a bridge between the University and the industry.

AREAS OF ACTIVITY

SERVICES

- Research
- Intellectual property
- Commercialisation and partnerships Patent licensing
- Innovation management
- Technology transfer

TECHNOLOGIES

- Biotechnology
- Ecology and environment
- ICT (Internet, Telecom)
- Life Sciences, Medicine & Pharmaceuticals Mechanical engineering
- New Materials