ABOUT US

Center for Environment and Development for the Arab Region and Europe (CEDARE) is an international not-for-profit organization with diplomatic status, based in Egypt. CEDARE, established in 1992, works as a platform to implement projects in capacity building, research, policy development, and awareness raising in diverse developmental and environmental topics including sustainable transportation. It is the regional partner of the UNEP-led Partnership for Cleaner Fuels and Vehicles (PCFV) for the MENAWA region, and partner in the Global Fuel Economy Initiative (GFEI) promoting vehicle efficiency, among other activities in this sector, working in close cooperation with the League of Arab States (LAS). It is also currently the lead partner in the 2-year project, PHAROS Integrated Eco-routing and fleet management systems, aiming to provide low-cost smart solutions for fleet managers to facilitate efficient route choices and eco-driving that minimizes fuel consumption and carbon emissions.
